Line item sums are rounded to the nearest $10,000. If less than $5,000, line item rounded up to nearest $10,000 rather than showing $0. Total spend is rounded to the nearest $10,000 based on the rounded line items. State public disclosure websites vary greatly in what information (including compensation) they require principals/clients and registered lobbyists to report. While the information presented above reflects rounding, it goes beyond what is publicly available in many states.
