TWO47™ TRAINING SERVICES

Expert training for optimal performance

Empower teams to master technology with expert training solutions.

Making the most of your technology means making sure that the people who use it have the right skills and know-how. We offer comprehensive training options to help your team learn new technology or increase their proficiency and confidence. And there's no one who knows L3Harris technology better than our world-class team of instructors.

INSTRUCTOR LED

Expert-led, customizable training sessions with role-based courses for managers, users and technicians to help teams quickly adapt to technology and enhance skills. These sessions boost confidence, support continuing education and simplify onboarding for new employees or products.

Training is available on-site, virtually with live instructors, or at the L3Harris Technical Training Center in Lynchburg, Virginia.

SELF PACED

Online critical communications and system management courses provide flexible, self-paced learning with customizable options.

Comprehensive Training Focus Areas

- > Core Operations:
Foundational skills to ensure smooth and effective use of your L3Harris systems.
- > Administrative Expertise:
Advanced administrative functions for system configuration and management.
- > Maintenance Proficiency:
Hands-on technical training for troubleshooting and maintaining radios and systems.
- > Console Operations:
Dedicated training for dispatch operators leveraging the capabilities of L3Harris consoles.
