Ultra-Reliable Critical Communications
for Those on the Front Lines

RADIOS THAT ARE ALL IN ON YOUR MISSION

When your mission is critical, you need a connection you can count on. At L3Harris, we do whatever it takes to deliver on that. From pioneering converged LMR-broadband solutions to engineering radios that endure the harshest conditions, we're continually advancing secure, multi-network communications built for real-world operations. With roots in national defense, mission-critical performance is in our DNA.

BUILT FOR YOUR MISSION

From police and fire to utilities, transportation and education, every detail is built with your mission in mind.

RELENTLESSLY RELIABLE

We design systems for redundancy and champion open networks so you can connect in ways others can't.

POINT-TO-POINT SECURITY

Advanced, FIPS 140-3 Level 3 ensures secure voice, data and location services, keeping your teams connected and systems protected.
